Key Insights

- Star Product: The Canon Copier is your MVP, generating over ₹60,000—nearly triple the revenue of other top items.
- Regional Leader: The West Region is the powerhouse, contributing over ₹10 Lakhs (2.5x more than the Central region).
- Q4 Seasonality: Huge sales spikes occur in September and November, showing a strong year-end buying trend.
- High-Volume Model: An AOV of ₹229.86 with nearly 10,000 orders confirms a high-frequency, small-ticket business.
- Category Strength: Technology is the most vital category, driving the highest proportion of both sales and pro.

Business Recommendations

- Boost AOV: Bundle the high-performing Canon Copier with recurring supplies (ink/paper) to increase transaction value.
- Bridge the October Gap: Launch a "Flash Sale" in October to fix the revenue dip between the September and November peaks.
- Revive Central Region: Conduct a targeted promotion in the Central Region to close the massive gap with the West.
- Maximize Tech Budget: Allocate more marketing spend to the Technology category during Q4 to capitalize on its high margin.
- Loyalty Incentives: With 10,000 orders, implement a Rewards Program to turn one-time buyers into repeat customers
